Her First Request.

turned to Carthage, Mo.

"Edgar, love," said the bride as the train moved away with them on their wedding journey, "I want you to make me one solemn promise."

"Haven't I just done that, my own?" counter-asked the bewildered bridegroom. "But this is something else. I want you to promise that-that-"That I will never marry again if you should die?" "No, indeed. That you always will be good to dear little Fido."

The bridegroom said something, but it was lost in the rattle of the train, and the recording angel forgot to put it down.

Nothing to be Desired

Every flavor made by Dr. Price has the peculiar' taste characteristic of the fruit from which it is obtained, and imparts to cakes, puddings, sauces or creams such a delicious and grateful flavor that their use really leaves nothing to be desired. We have yet to see the housewife who has used Dr. Price's Delicious Flavoring Extract of Lemon, Orange, Nectarine or Vanilla, who was not delighted with them.

The Purity of Dr. Price's Flavors is endorsed by the leading chemists and heads of the great universities of this continent.
